The Wells Fargo Private Consolidation℠ Loan

Wells Fargo Consolidation loan worksheet[1]

Thinking about consolidating multiple private student loans or refinancing a single loan? This worksheet is designed to help you gather the information you'll need to apply. Get started using the three easy steps below:

1 Determine if you are eligible to apply for a consolidation loan. The Wells Fargo Private Consolidation loan requires you:

- Have at least $5,000 in private student loans
- Are a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or permanent resident alien (U.S. citizen cosigner required for permanent resident aliens)
- Meet credit, employment, and debt-to-income requirements

Note: Federal student loans are not eligible for a Wells Fargo Private Consolidation loan. For information on federal student loans, visit studentaid.ed.gov/repay-loans.

2 Complete the chart below with your current private student loan information.

Private Student Loans
Lender/Servicer Name	Name on Account	Account Number	Interest Rate	Current Balance	Monthly Payment Amount
			Total amounts:

3 When you apply, have the following information ready:

- Social Security number
- Employment and income information
- Permanent U.S. address
- Requested consolidation loan amount
- Cosigner information (if needed)

For additional information visit: wellsfargo.com/student/private-loan-consolidation

Call 1-877-449-2434 or apply online today!

Our Student Loan Consultants can help answer your questions and determine your new monthly payment — whether you're combining multiple student loans or refinancing a single loan.

[1] The Wells Fargo Private Consolidation student loan is subject to completion of a loan application/consumer credit agreement, verification of application information, credit qualification, and a benefit to borrower determination.

Wells Fargo Education Financial Services is a division of Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. © 2016 Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. All rights reserved.

03 /2016

Together we'll go far