

Pensacola Mural Key

The Wells Fargo Community Mural Program is dedicated to creating unique, custom-designed, historical artwork that respects the community's legacy, celebrates its diversity, and honors the past upon which the community was founded.

Images Courtesy Of: State Archives of Florida • CHINFO, Navy Visual News Service • U.S. Naval History and Heritage Command • Library of Congress, Geography and Map Division • Wells Fargo Corporate Archives

Pilots at Naval Air Station Pensacola (NASP), 1921. NASP was the first Naval Air Station commissioned by the U.S. Navy in 1914.

Ensign Jesse L. Brown, the U.S. Navy's first African American naval aviator, seated in the cockpit of an F4U-4 Corsair Fighter plane. (Official U.S. Navy photograph. RELEASED)

The Blue Angels, formed in 1946 and based in Pensacola, is the United States Navy's flight demonstration squadron.

Naval Aviation Camp personnel during Naval aviation's first fleet deployment to Guantanamo Bay, 1913. (Collection of Commander Theodore G. Ellyson, U.S. NHHC Photograph)

Illustrated map of Pensacola, the seat of Escambia County, 1885. The area was first settled by Spanish explorers in 1559, when Tristán de Luna y Arellano landed with over 1,400 people on 11 ships from Vera Cruz, Mexico.

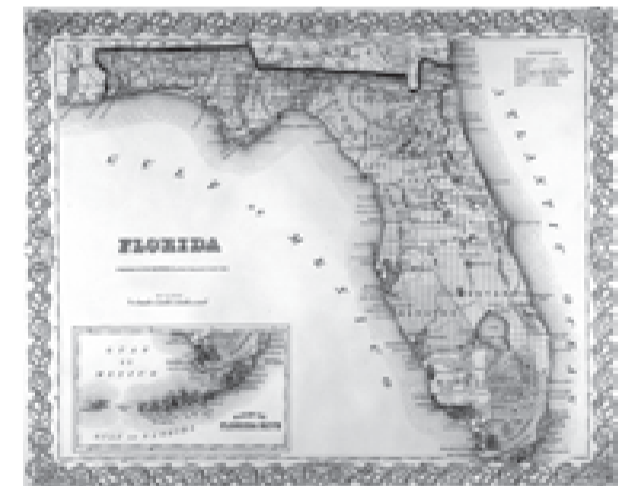

Pensacola residents dressed for a special occasion, c. 1932. (Cotton Family Collection)

Poster advertising Wells Fargo express money orders, c. 1900s.

Wells Fargo's diamond sign signaled express wagons to stop for parcels and identified company offices worldwide.

Map of Florida, published by J. H. Colton & Co., 1855.

Together we'll go far

Questions? Comments?
We would like to hear from you!
Please contact communitymurals@wellsfargo.com